ABOUT THE CENTRE

Criminal law is an important subject of academic and practical importance. The Centre seeks to advance knowledge on the administration of justice and on the nature of criminal behavior. It aims to bring various stakeholders like academicians, policy planners, officials, programme administrators, representatives of civil society, NGOs, media, social and development activists and practitioners to debate and discuss about Criminal Law and Justice and inclusive development: issues, challenges and social perspective. The Centre attempts to engage these issues theoretically as well as empirically.

The Centre promotes research and teaching in Substantive Criminal Law subjects namely:

- Code of Criminal Procedure
- Law of Evidence
- Indian Penal Code
- The Administration of Criminal Justice System
- Criminology and
- The Philosophy and Practice of Punishment

VISION AND MISSION

The main objective behind the centre is to provide not only legal education but also give exposure to the society to understand the laws and the bottlenecks in implementation. The Centre strives to be the leading voice of reason and logic in the study and evaluation of criminal law and the justice implementation system in India.

SCOPE OF WORK

The Centre's scope includes the organization of courses, conferences, seminars and lectures; the preparation of responses to Government legislative proposals, Law Commission consultation papers, and other law reform proposals; the building of networks of contacts with government departments, the judiciary, the criminal Bar, solicitors' firms, the police, the Prison Service and other institutions and groups with interests in criminal justice; co-operation with other universities with special interests in criminal law subjects, with a view to developing programmes of visits, faculty exchanges, and collaborative research.

CURRENT RESEARCH AREA
